Student profiles

Xixi Wang joined CATS for Easter Revision, loved it and stayed. She gained four A grades in Physics, Economics, Further Maths and Maths with an extraordinary 100% mark in six of her maths exams. In 2005 she achieved a distinction in the Advanced Extension Award for Maths and topped that in 2006 when she achieved the highest possible grade in one of the most challenging pre-university mathematics tests in the UK for entrance to Cambridge University. She is currently studying Maths at Cambridge.

Oliver Brewis gained four A grades in English Literature, Classical Greek, History and Latin in 2005. After enjoying a Gap Year he took up his place at Cambridge University's Corpus Christi College in October 2006.

Satoru Okuyama gained five grade As in Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics and Psychology in the June 2006 Foundation examinations at Stafford House College. He commenced a Chemistry with Forensic Science course at Hull University in October.

Oluwatoyin 'Toyin' Lisk-Carew took the Stafford House College Foundation course between September 2002 and June 2003, before taking an LLB in Law at the University of Kent at Canterbury. She graduated in July 2006 and has now been accepted on the Bar Vocational Course at the Inns of Court School of Law in London, where she began work in September 2006.

Jia Xuan Liao finished her A-levels at CATS in 2003 and was awarded a BA Management with Accounting from Royal Holloway earlier this year.

Chiharu Yoshida gained three grade As in Geography, History and Sociology in the June 2006 Foundation examinations and has taken up an offer from Edinburgh University to study Archaeology.

Class mate and President of the Stafford House College Student Council Fukuyo Hamamoto gained three grade As in Government & Politics, History and Sociology and is studying Politics at York University. She also gained a place on the Dean's List and won a UKP Honours Scholarship Award offered by Cambridge Education Group.

Polina Pavlova from Bulgaria planned to study in France, but changed to Cambridge when introduced to CATS. She gained three A grades for Maths, Sociology and Economics and has taken up an offer from City University where she is now studying BSc Banking and International Finance.

Miyuki Kishita graduated from Stafford House College in June 2003 with three grade As in Chemistry, Geography and Mathematics, and has now been awarded an Honours Degree (2.1) by Imperial College (Wye) in Environmental Science.

Aizhan Imangaliyeva gained three grade As in ICT, Business & Economics and Mathematics, and has been offered a place at York University to study Economics. At the College Graduation Ceremony in June, she was awarded the Principal's Prize for outstanding academic achievement and for her contribution to extra-curricular activities including the College Charity Club.

CSVPA Foundation student Kohji Yanagi won the opportunity of work experience at the London studio of the celebrity fashion designer, Julien Macdonald, which was announced at the end-of-year fashion show attended by more than 500 people. He is currently studying Fashion Design at the University of Hertfordshire.

CSVPA's Eenyoung Lee was awarded a place in the 2nd year at the prestigious Slade School of Fine Art at University College London.

The Drama Foundation course has produced two successful entrants to the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art (RADA) in London. Carlyss Peer and Emily Houghton were among more than 2,000 applicants to RADA, where only 32 students (16 male and 16 female) are accepted on to the Academy's Acting Degree. Isabel Quinzanos and Lola Frears won places at the Drama Centre at Central St Martin's; Isabel, from Mexico student, won a place on the Directing degree course. Brice Stratford took up a place at the equally prestigious Academy of Live and Recorded Arts (ALRA), joining Jocelyn Weld-Forester from the class of 2005.
